BIFMA Announces the Election of New Directors

Grand Rapids, MI – The Business and Institutional Furniture Manufacturers Association (BIFMA) International is pleased to announce the election of two new Directors to the BIFMA Board. Kathleen (Kass) Bradley, President & CEO of Knoll North America and Chuck Saylor, President of izzydesign were each elected to three-year terms as BIFMA Directors effective June 1, 2006.

Brian Walker, President and CEO of Herman Miller was elected to a one-year term as BIFMA's President replacing Dan Miller, (Kimball Furniture Brands) in that capacity. Scott Schwinghammer, President of Versteel, completed his term as a BIFMA Director, but was re-elected to another one-year term as BIFMA Treasurer.

Bob Bockheim, President & COO of Nucraft and Paul Simons, President of Mayline Group, were both elected to a second term as BIFMA Directors.

Established in 1973, BIFMA International is a not-for-profit trade association of furniture manufacturers and suppliers addressing issues of common concern. BIFMA's mission is to serve the North American office and business furniture manufacturing industry as an information resource and industry advocate, and by offering industry-wide trade development opportunities.
